Who's Who's

Your "who's who" is a biographical paragraph, telling the audience who you are, what part you are playing in the show, and what other acting you've done previously. Below you will see an example of a "who's who."

John Von Glahn - (2017) - The Beast - This is John's third year with the Principal Players. Past musical credits include Miles Gloriosus in A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum, The Baker in Into The Woods, and a chorus member in The Drowsy Chaperone and Anything Goes. Past dramatic credits include Oberon in A Mid Summer Night's Dream. Break a leg!

Color Coding for the Who's Who listed above

1. Magenta - Name
2. Blue - Graduating Year
3. Orange - Character Name in this year's show
4. Lavender - Previous Musical Credits - be sure to include the character name and the show. If this is your first show, please put "This is John's first year with the Principal Players."
5. Brown - Previous Drama Credits - only add this if you were in a drama.
6. Aqua - Well Wishes

Please ONLY include shows that were a part of the Principal Players - do not include any performances outside of school or any elementary school shows.

Please remember that this will be included in our show's program. Please check your spelling or have someone check it for you.
